3. JUDGING and AWARDS - Competitive exhibits will be judged in one of the three classes by a panel of five or more APS-accredited judges against the standards established for those classes, as described below. Decisions of the judges will be final. They may reclassify exhibit divisions within the General Class for the benefit of the exhibitors. All competitive exhibits will be awarded one of six levels of achievement; Gold, Vermeil, Silver, Silver-bronze, Bronze and Certificate of Participation. The winner of the Rocky Mountain Stamp Show Grand Award will be eligible to participate in the APS Champion of Champions competition at Sacramento, California in August 2012 and Ameristamp Expo held in Louisville, KY in January 2013 for the Single Frame Grand.

Exhibit Divisions within the General Class: 1) Postal, 2) Revenue 3) Thematic 4) Display 5) Illustrated Mail, and 6) Cinderella

General Class - For those exhibitors who wish to compete under the rules established by the APS for World Series of Philately exhibitions, exhibits must be from a minimum of two to a maximum of ten frames. Five medal levels will be awarded at the discretion of the judges: Gold, Vermeil, Silver, Silver-Bronze, and Bronze. The only direct competition amongst the exhibits will be for the Rocky Mountain Stamp Show Grand, Reserve Grand, and Junior Grand awards, and for specialty awards (according to the criteria established by the donor societies).

Youth Class – For those exhibitors under 21 years of age.

Picture Postcard Class - For those exhibitors who wish to compete in this class, exhibits may be from one to a maximum of ten frames. Exhibits within this class are not eligible for the Grand Award selected for the best exhibit in the General or Single Frame Classes. Other donor society awards may be given per society guidelines.

Single Frame Class - The Rocky Mountain Stamp Show jury will judge single-frame exhibits separately except for those displaying picture post cards which are not eligible for the Grand Award assigned to the Best Single Frame Exhibit. The judges will also select the best single-frame exhibit for the Rocky Mountain Stamp Show One-Frame Grand Award, Colorado Postal History Society Award (best single-frame exhibit of Colorado postal history), and other specialty awards according to the criteria established by the donor societies.

Court of Honor and Non-Competitive Class - The Exhibits Committee will accept non-competitive exhibits by special arrangement only. Court of Honor exhibits are high quality exhibits selected by the featured and attending societies. If you have questions, contact the Exhibits Chairman at the address below.
