France & Colonies Philatelic Society

<http://www.drunkenboat.net/frandcol/FCPSHome.html>

The France & Colonies Group was organized in 1941 by seventeen philatelists who were interested in the stamps and postal history of France and the French community. Incorporated in 1961 as the France & Colonies Philatelic Society, Inc., the membership has grown to over 400 collectors throughout the American continent and overseas. The Society's interest in French philately includes the colonies, offices abroad, Monaco, Europa, territories and new independent republics

Cuban Philatelic Society of America

<http://www.philat.com/cpsa>

The CPSA was organized in 1971 to promote Cuban philately and philatelic friendship among its members. The CPSA sponsors studies and research of stamps and postal history of Cuba. It has grown from a small group of collectors in the Miami area to several hundred members throughout the world. CPSA has members in Canada, Latin America, Europe, and Asia. The society publishes a bilingual journal, The Cuban Philatelist, as well as an active Internet site and a number of auctions throughout the year.

Society for Czechoslovak Philately

<http://www.csphilately.org>

The Society for Czechoslovak Philately (SCP) is an international organization founded in 1939 which is devoted to the collecting, study, education, and publicizing all aspects of philately represented by geographic areas of the former Czechoslovakia. The group, originally named the Czechoslovak Philatelic Society, started small but grew quickly. Collectors from many parts of the United States joined and soon thereafter, philatelists from other countries joined. The SCP currently has members in 35 states and 18 countries. The society's journal, The Czechoslovak Specialist has been published continuously since 1939.
